

It's time to take
A Christmas Carol to the Snowman

Dear Friend,

Banish Those Bah Humbugs at The REP this Christmas!

We are delighted to announce about the most magical shows of Birmingham's history theatre this year. A Christmas Carol and The Snowman - perfect for a festive family outing.

Charles Dickens' heart-warming family favourite A Christmas Carol comes to life in a fabulous new stage adaptation from 15 November - 8 January.

Bah Humbug! It's Christmas Eve and the misanthropic and miserly old-hearted miser Scrooge, Ebenezer Scrooge has to learn to appreciate or appreciate the joy of the Christmas spirit through the words of an angel when he is taken on a journey through the most magical moments of past, present and future. We know because he was inspired by Christmas Day. This brand new production stars Peter Pollock as the iconic Ebenezer Scrooge.

A Christmas Carol promises to delight audiences of all ages, with nothing if not excellent Christmas cheer. Tickets are from 10.00 up to 22.50. The show is recommended for ages 7+.

The REP's much loved production of The Snowman makes a welcome return to Birmingham from 15-24 January.

"The Rolls Royce of children's entertainment" - Evening Standard

"Sheer theatrical magic. Go to The Snowman and melt!" - The Times

This magical stage adaptation of Raymond Briggs' book has been delighting children for many years. It's the most magical Christmas story ever told and the perfect gift to bring to the children. The Snowman is a magical show and a perfect New Year's treat for all ages.
